

Home

Current Issue

Featured Articles

From the Back Issues

Understanding Sacred Speech: An Interview with Shaykh Rizwan Arastu

al-Sidrah - September 11, 2025

How do we begin to approach the words of our Imams, who lived in worlds vastly different from ours today? How do we translate...

Childhood as a Formative and Integral Stage in

Faith According to Islamic Psychology

Sayyid Sameer Ali - August 28, 2025

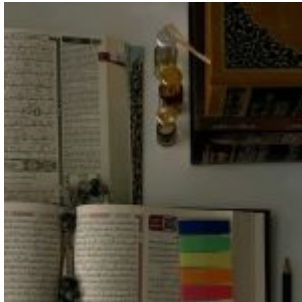

Childhood is a sacred and foundational stage in Islamic psychology, one that shapes the moral, spiritual, cognitive, and emotional development of an individual. Within...

Seeing Life through Sacred Eyes

David Coolidge - December 19, 2024

We often think of Islam as a tradition that tells us do certain "sacred" activities, such as going to hajj, and avoid other activities...

The Qur'an Speaks about Its People How Most of the Qur'an Is about the Family of the Prophet

Azhar Sheraze - December 18, 2024

By Muhammad Muḥsin al-Fayḍ al-Kāshānī Translated by Azhar Sheraze Tafsīr al-Ṣāfī is a profound and multilayered tafsīr (exegesis) of the Qur'an by Muhammad Muḥsin al-Fayḍ al-Kāshānī...

The Devil Isn't Just in the Details: Reflections on Artificial Intelligence, Islam, and Higher Education

Amina Inloes - December 17, 2024

Many of us have had our first conscious experience with AI through interacting with ChatGPT, that marvellous wonder of the postmodern world which writes...

Inspired Wisdom and the Child Prodigy: Morality Beyond the Technical in Shi'i Sacred History

Cyrus Ali Zagar - December 17, 2024

What follows is a virtue ethics approach to one incredibly telling incident in Shi'i sacred history. This incident, read in a particular way, illustrates...

Quenching the Thirst of Generations: The Ali Asghar Water Appeal's Journey Towards Sustainable Change

Abbas Merali - December 16, 2024

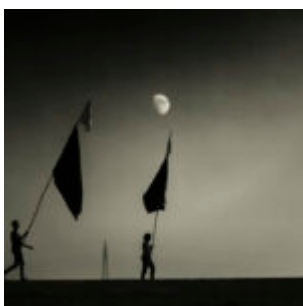

Water is a fundamental need for every human being. However, it remains a distant dream for billions of people worldwide, where access to clean,...

The Authenticity of Ziyārat ‘Āshūrā’

Sayyid Musa Shubayri al-Zanjani - October 10, 2020

The following is a translation of Sayyid Musa al-Shubayrī al-Zanjānī's response to a question regarding the authenticity of the widely-recited Ziyārat ‘Āshūrā’. The version...

Arba'īn: the Mi'rāj of a Mourner

Saiyeda Zehra Hussain - October 9, 2020

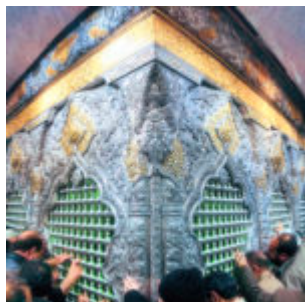

The following reflection expresses the depth of the spiritual walk from Najaf to Karbala on Arba'īn. These personal expressions of sacrifice serve as crucial...

Islam's Sacred Story: A Contemporary Retelling- Part 2

Syed Rizwan Zamir - August 26, 2020

This is the second installment of the two-part article by Syed Rizwan Zamir, which explores how Sayyid Ali Naqi Naqvi attempted to revive South...

Islam's Sacred Story: A Contemporary Retelling- Part 1

Syed Rizwan Zamir - August 17, 2020

This is the first installment in a two-part article on the historical thought of Sayyid al-'ulamā', Sayyid Ali Naqi Naqvi. The article explores the...

Qur'anic Ta'wīl: Comparing the Views of Ibn 'Arabī and 'Allāmah Ṭabāṭabā'ī

Shaykh Hamid Raza Fazil - June 19, 2018

Explaining the Qur'an is called ta'wīl, literally "the returning of a thing to its origin." Yet the question remains: what origin or reality is it returned to?

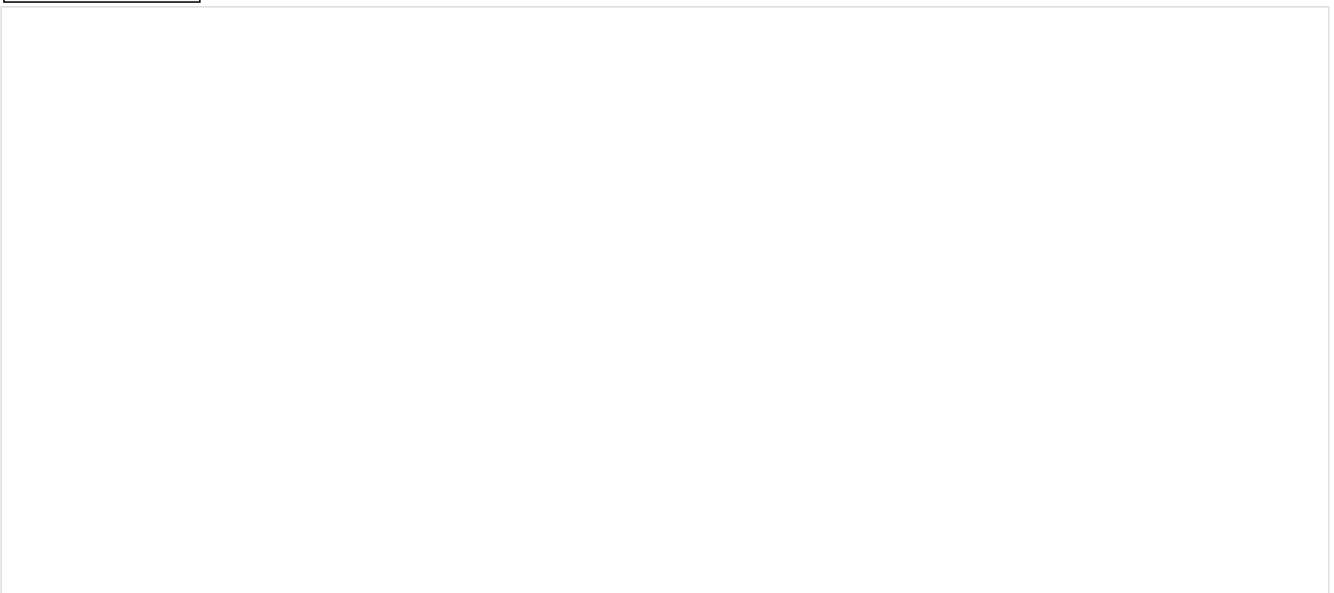

A Journal on Islam & Community

A Publication of the Ahl al-Bayt Islamic Seminary

Subscribe to Email List

Back Issues

Support the Seminary

Search

